be aloha
On one of the most celebrated sites in all of Hawaii, Timbers Kaua'i – Ocean Club & Residences commands the premier oceanfront location within the renowned 450-acre Hōkūala resort, a natural amphitheater at the entrance to the tranquil waters of Kalapaki Beach. Timbers Kaua'i celebrates the ocean, shoreline and verdant mountains beyond. In what may be the last opportunity of its kind, the residences that rise at the very edge of the Pacific are a rare and exclusive chance to call this storied place home.
Few places on earth are as spectacularly diverse as Kaua'i. Alongside your paddleboard is a rainbow of tropical fish; at the bow of your sailboat, a school of dolphins play. Each winter, perhaps like you will, humpback whales return for their own vacation in paradise.
be connected

Pili ‘ana, connections, are the very essence of the Hawaiian culture—past to present, sea to mountain, earth to sky. Nowhere does all this come together so naturally as on Kaua‘i. The oldest of the Hawaiian Islands, it is a tropical world of beauty, peace and tranquility. Above and below the surface, the contrasts are striking, the colors saturated, the culture rich and diverse. Set within the vibrant Hōkūala resort, Timbers Kaua‘i – Ocean Club & Residences is your connection to the heart and soul of the island, and is an idyllic home away from the hum of the outside world. It is a place you and your family will want to return to time and time again.
Kaua‘i is the most inviting and diverse of all the islands, where even short distances bring dramatic contrasts. In the same few minutes it takes to reach Po‘ipū’s sunny beaches, you can explore a tropical rainforest along the Nā Pali Coast. Perhaps best of all, the adventure begins right here at home as Timbers Kaua‘i offers championship golf, pools and spas, an organic farm, enriching mountain-to-sea pursuits, hiking and biking trails, and oceanfront dining.

Nā Pali Coast
The iconic and untouched Nā Pali Coast—its 4,000-foot cliffs are accessible only by helicopter, boat or adventurous hike. There is no more spectacular meeting of mauka and makai.

Waimea Canyon
The Grand Canyon of the Pacific is 14 miles long, 3,600 feet deep and home to majestic waterfalls, dazzling red rocks and lush foliage, all begging to be explored.

Dive In
With 680 different species of fish that inhabit its warm waters, Kaua‘i is a scuba and snorkeling paradise. Our Adventure Guides will take you to the famous places, as well as to their own secret spots.

Spouting Horn
When the light is just right, the sea erupts through a blowhole into a 50-foot rainbow of sea spray.

Kalalau Trail
In a word, epic. Traverse from coast to valleys, over freshwater streams and through waterfalls and jungles of twisted vines, wild ginger, banana, guava and ti plants. There’s a reason it is one of the most spectacular hikes on earth.
Hanalei Town, a bay, a beach. Postcard perfect. Summer calm, and one of the best surf breaks in winter. Be sure to stay long enough to experience the breathtaking sunset.

Kilauea
Leading to this beautiful bay is a rugged coast dotted with pristine beaches and a world-famous wildlife sanctuary. Here, too, is a charming town and the 52-foot historic lighthouse that has been lighting the way for mariners since 1913.

Waterfalls
The Hanakapi'ai, Wailua & ‘Opaeka’a
Kaua'i may be the most waterfall-rich place on earth. Some reward the intrepid day-trip bikers, like the 300-foot-high Hanakapi’ai Falls, a spectacle worthy of an eight-mile trek. Others are virtually “drive-up” falls. Two of the best known are the 80-foot-tall Wailua and often thundering ‘Opaeka’a.

Fern Grotto
Once reserved for Hawaiian royalty, it is today accessible by a short boat trip up the Wailua River, the only year-round navigable river in the Hawaiian Islands. The lush, magical lava-rock grotto with hanging ferns is cooled by the mists of a waterfall.

Kalapaki Beach
It’s yours. Steps from your home, Kalapaki is a wide and sun-drenched sandy crescent lapped by the tranquil water of Nawiliwili Bay. Perfect for sandcastles, paddleboards and snorkeling—it’s your ocean playground.

Kohola
In Hawaii, the return of the humpback whale is considered more of a homecoming than a visit—because calves are born in Hawaiian waters, they’re Kama’aina. From December through May, watch them from your lanai as they frolic off the shores of Hōkūala.

Po‘ipū
Kapa’a, Anahola and Po‘ipū, along with your own Kalapaki Beach, are among the best in Kaua‘i. You may have to share them with the turtles and monk seals that love to nap on shore. Snorkelers can catch a glimpse of the state fish, the humuhumunukunukuapua’a.
the story unfolds

To set foot on this coastal paradise is to instantly understand why the seafaring Polynesians landed at Hōkūala hundreds of years ago. Lush and breathtaking, this storied site allows us to be intimately connected to the sea, the earth, to ourselves and those we love. Overlooking the gentle waters of Kalapaki Beach, year-round swimming, kayaking, paddleboarding, snorkeling the reef or simply soaking in the still waters are but steps away. On land, Hōkūala’s lush tropical landscape is surrounded by scenic walking and biking trails for families who seek an active lifestyle. In addition, a variety of local shops and island dining are accessible along the inland waterway. And in the heart of it all, Timbers Kaua‘i is your home—a destination for the body, mind and soul to flourish.
Don’t wade—jump in! As you come to know Timbers Kaua‘i, you’ll realize that life here is celebrated on the water, in the water and under the water. On a surfboard or kayak, with fins and a snorkel, there are simply no boundaries to the ways you can immerse yourself in the sparkling waters of the Pacific. Directly offshore, the deep-sea fishing is as incredible as it is diverse—imagine ono, mahi mahi or ahi tuna on your line. The diving is just as spellbinding with reef fish found nowhere else on earth.
Our team of Adventure Guides are as passionate as they are knowledgeable. Through them, you will come to know and treasure secret beaches, fishing holes, reef breaks and hidden water falls. From lessons in outrigger canoeing and stand-up paddleboarding to one-on-one surf instruction, each day here promises experiences you’ve only dreamed about and the creation of a meaningful lifelong connection to moana.
or at rest

Explore. Indulge. Relax. Timbers Kauai serves you authentic and luxury island living where you can enjoy everything there is to do on the island or you can simply enjoy doing nothing at all. At your doorstep is an infinity pool overlooking the Pacific, over 13 miles of trails, beach and keiki clubs, a spa, a hyper-local and chef-driven restaurant featuring fresh ingredients from the on-site organic farm and a Jack Nicklaus signature course boasting the longest stretch of oceanfront golf on all of Hawaii.
Winding its way through mango and guava groves to dramatic seaside cliffs, it’s little wonder that the list of accolades for this Jack Nicklas Signature track is as long as its string of holes that hug the Pacific.

“I think of Kaua’i as a laid-back tropical paradise. The island is more quaint and less commercial than Oahu and Maui. I put forth my best effort in the design process. The quality of conditioning, maintenance, and playing experience is important to me. It all reflects on my name and brand. It’s reassuring Timbers Resorts is willing to make a commitment to ensure that the product I have produced is taken care of, enjoyed, and thought well of for generations to come.”

~ Jack Nicklaus

be the first
On one of the most storied and celebrated sites in the Hawaiian Islands, Timbers Kaua‘i – Ocean Club & Residences crowns the legendary Kukiʻi Point, ascending gradually and gracefully from the shore. The three distinct buildings are designed to capture the spirit of island architecture and honor the beauty of the surrounding ocean, golf course, lagoons and bay. Timbers Kaua‘i is comprised of 47 exclusive residences, each building’s height and strategic orientation provides an impressive panorama from every vantage—inspiring views that span from the Pacific Ocean to the dramatic Haʻupu mountain range and from the Ninini Point Lighthouse to the breathtaking watercolor sunsets in the west.

your private paradise
Timbers Kaua‘i offers a lifestyle as rich and diverse as the island itself, and this extends to every aspect of the ownership experience. For a select few, there is an opportunity to own a private residence with year-round access through our whole ownership program. Equally attractive is the idea of purchasing a deeded Residence Club interest, which allows you to customize usage to your personal vacation home needs. Regardless of the choice, rest assured your home is being meticulously maintained—every detail taken care of so that you can arrive and begin vacationing immediately.

effortless ownership, endless possibilities
All of Timbers’ signature amenities are here—an infinity-edge pool overlooking the Pacific, sunrise yoga and wellness programs infused with holistic island practices and our Keiki Adventure Club for youngsters are just the start of an amazing Hawaiian home. “Let us take you there” is the mantra for our concierges and island guides—everyone wants to share their island with you. You’ll enjoy exclusive resort activities and authentic experiences, from secluded waterfall hikes to a chef’s table featuring your catch of the day—all offered with gracious island service.
At Timbers Kaua‘i, every aspect of the architecture and landscape thoughtfully embraces and celebrates the rich history of Kaua‘i, and the natural wonders of sea, land and sky. The design intention is one of harmony and connection to Polynesian culture, expressed in a contemporary tropical design. There is exclusivity, as the scale is intimate. There are vibrant gathering spaces for connecting, joy and celebration, and always, seclusion and privacy when desired.
Indoor/outdoor living is the hallmark of the Hawaiian lifestyle, and so, quite naturally, each residence is designed to let nature flow, where ocean breezes, swaying palm trees and incredible Pacific views are celebrated. Sliding glass walls seamlessly transition the interior spaces to deep, covered lanais, offering a true extension of the home. Every square inch of a Timbers Kaua‘i residence is thoughtfully designed with immaculate finishes and features that evoke a sense of island tranquility and sophistication.
Four words help to express the intentions of the décor—informing, symbiotic, transparent and rich. To the eye and the touch, every material and detail has been selected to honor the spirit of island living. Luxurious yes, but always relaxed, authentic and approachable. The aesthetic is quintessentially Hawaiian, but with a fresh, contemporary sensibility. The philosophy is one with a natural, textural and ecocentric focus, where colors recede and simplicity of design creates a calming harmony.

Let only the golden blossoms of aloha live in your heart.

— Queen Lili‘uokalani

Aloha is “the breath of life.”

Aloha is a way of living and treating each other with love and respect. Its deep meaning starts by teaching ourselves to love our own being first, and afterwards to spread the love to others.
